

EASTERN MEETING

IAFCS members tour the Kirkwood Community College culinary kitchen while the culinary students prepare the evening meal.

(Above) IAFCS member, Teresa Nennig greets her former high school student, Amanda Manson.

The Eastern Regional meeting was held at Kirkwood Community College, Cedar Rapids, on October 6, with 62 attending. Guests toured the Culinary Arts building, the kitchens, and had dinner which was planned and served by the culinary arts students. Lorene Rexwinkel, IAFCS President, gave greetings and an update from the IAFCS board; Lois Kiester introduced herself as the new executive director; and Teresa Nennig reminded participants to continue to nominate for annual awards. The main speaker for the night was Joanne Kuster, who is an entrepreneur and business owner in Johnston, Iowa.

(L) ISU FCS education students and IAFCS members enjoy the evening meal prepared by the Kirkwood culinary students.

(R) Speaker, Joann Kuster

